Notes from the Committee:

"The Fun of Communication"

As you probably know, various Wine & Food Societies exchange newsletters. Recently the 'Eye of the Grape' wrote a poem about our wine tasting treats at Marton and specifically Ashton Vineyard. A reader from the Taupo W & F Socy recognised his family home and farm and made contact with Tom Trotter and a lot was said, I understand, about Granddad's stock unit now growing grapes.

Now that summer is approaching it could be a chance to visit the vineyard of Pohangina Valley Estate (Valley Road nearly opposite the Waterford).

From 'The Eye Of the Grape'

This "Eye of the Grape" went to a cocktail party and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Arriving at the modern, spacious venue 'Hiwinui', set amongst beautiful country vistas, the guests were dressed in cocktail attire with coquettish hair pieces and fancy outfits. They were greeted with an array of cocktails premiered for the first time. They were interesting, diverse and certainly mind blowing. Tasty hors-d'oevres, and finger food delights were tried. They were varied and mouth watering sensations to titillate the palate.

All this added up to a most enjoyable event at which one mingled and mixed for two scintillating hours of chin-wagging and chatter.
